Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR) for formulation of revival/rehabilitation schemes. Of them 14 have already been referred to BIFR.

(iii) Professionalisation of the Board of Directors of PSUs. Instructions have been issued to the administrative Ministries/Departments to constitute the Boards of PSUs in such a manner that it includes atleast one-third of its strength from outside as Non-official Directors so that the Boards could function in a professional and decisive manner.

(iv) Govt. has also started the process of disinvestment of shares in a few PSUs without loss of control over them. This will lead to further improvement in performance of these PSUs since their performance will be evaluated by the Market also in addition to the Ministry.

(c) The Articles of Association of each PSU provides for constitution of Board of Directors. Some posts on the Board, including those of CMD/MDs become vacant from time to time for various reasons like retirement, resignation, etc. Such vacancies are, however, filled up as early as possible. As per available information, 29 posts of CMD/MDs and 52 posts of full-time Directors were vacant on 30-4-1992.
